

Ghost Studios - Local Newsletter

(August 16-22, 2026)

Missed what happened last week at Ghost Studios? Here's the rundown of the Top 3 Stories!

Warner Robins to hold Community Input Session about the future of Perkins Park

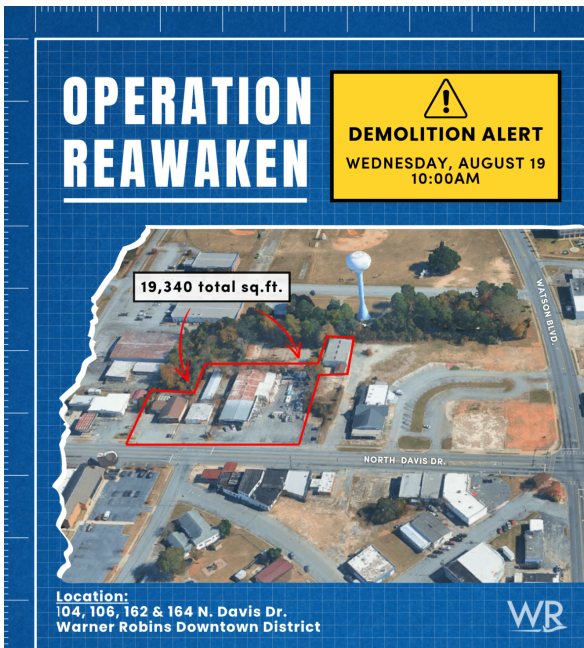

Perkins Park, a long standing community staple, located over on 105 Mulberry Street, has been a host to many events in Warner Robins over the years, including the upcoming International City Festival taking place September 12th and that’s why the city is calling on the community to hear their voice and join in the planning of what’s to come to the park.

Author: Godfrey Hall

Read more

Warner Robins Operation Reawaken set to surpass 53,000 square feet of commercial demolitions this coming Wednesday

Warner Robins Mayor LaRhonda Patrick is not stopping as the dream for a downtown area that rivals Macon continues gaining traction with four more buildings set to be demolished as a part of Operation Reawaken.

Author: Godfrey Hall

Read more

Houston County Deputy faces criminal charges after misuse of Flock Cameras

This comes as other incidents around Georgia have come to light in recent weeks, causing concern in communities as conversations around privacy and mass surveillance begin to surface.

Author: Godfrey Hall

Read more

Unsubscribe | Manage subscription